Module 4
Rideables

Activities, such as skateboarding and scooter riding, require participants to follow certain rules and regulations. This is what makes our society a relatively safe one. When we all work together, we can create recreational environments everyone can enjoy.

Research Activity

Research the regulations for using skateboards, scooters and e-scooters in your state.

Make a note of your findings below.